Crl.O.P.No.28904 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.146 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioner along with other accused have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with wooden log. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been foisted against him. He would further that he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to civil dispute, the petitioner along with other accused have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with wooden log. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
