Crl.O.P.No.29656 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324 & 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.257 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant lodged the complaint before the respondent police alleging that the petitioners along with other accused teased his relative girl by singing songs. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners along with other accused abused him in filthy language and assaulted him with hands, stones and threatened with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners were earlier granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.20681 of 2022 vide Order dated 30.08.2022, however they were unable to furnish the sureties and thereby, the earlier Order has got lapsed and the present anticipatory bail has been filed.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the petitioners were earlier granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.20681 of 2022 vide Order dated 30.08.2022, however they failed to execute the sureties. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
