Crl.O.P.No.29017 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 & 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.534 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant and the petitioner belongs to the same village. The de-facto complainant went to the petitioner's shop in an inebriated mode and demanded a cigarette without paying money. When the petitioner had refused to give the cigarette, the de-facto complainant had abused him in filthy language, wherein the petitioner had attacked him with knife. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the de-facto complainant and the petitioner belongs to the same village. The de-facto complainant went to the petitioner's shop in an inebriated mode and demanded a cigarette in debt. When the petitioner had refused to give the cigarette, the de-facto complainant had abused him in filthy language, wherein the petitioner had attacked him with knife. The injured has been discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
