Crl.O.P.No.29171 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 342, 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.346 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. Due to civil dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with iron pipe and hands. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Additional Public prosecutor would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. Due to civil dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with iron pipe and hands. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
