Crl.O.P.No.29176 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.481 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours. Due to previous enmity, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also assaulted him with iron rod, resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been foisted against them. He would further that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours. Due to previous enmity, the petitioners have abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him with iron rod, due to which, he had sustained injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vikravandi on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the
