Government Advocate

ORDER

Though the order challenged in the Writ Petition is one transferring proceedings to the jurisdictional Revenue Divisional Officer. A perusal of the document executed by the petitioner reveals that the petitioner cannot seek relief under the special enactment namely, Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007. Section 23 of the Act declares certain transfers as void. There are two essential pre-conditions namely, the document should have been executed after the coming into force of the Act and it should contain clause imposing an obligation on the settlee or transferee to maintain the settlor or transferor. Evidently, such clause is absent in the document in question therefore, the authority under Section 23 of Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 cannot entertain an application for cancellation of the document.

W.P.No.32650 of 2022

3.Hence, this Writ Petition is dismissed on the conclusion that the very application before the Revenue Divisional Officer is not maintainable.

It will however, open to the petitioner to launch appropriate proceedings, seeking maintenance from his son and also for cancellation of the document before the appropriate Civil Court subject to the availability of the remedy.

No costs.
