2. The case of the prosecution is that while the respondent Police and his team were on their routine patrol duty, they found that the petitioner along with the other accused were in possession of 110 litres of illicit arrack. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case, since he has got previous cases. 4. The Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner(A3) along with the other accused were found in illegal possession of 110 litres of illicit arrack. He further submitted that four previous cases are pending as against the petitioner. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that without prejudice to his defence, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.50,000/- as non- refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or to any shelter home and he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

7. In order to curb the illegal activities of selling illicit arrack, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner shall deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand only) as a non refundable deposit to "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Medical College, Kallakurichi", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel that the petitioner is prepared to deposit Rs.50,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

10. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to make a non refundable deposit of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the "The
