The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 448, 294(b), 324, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.330 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and the 1st petitioner are husband and wife. Due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with wooden log resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the defacto complainant and the 1st petitioner are husband and wife and due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him using wooden log. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Ambur, Thirupattur District, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned

Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the 1st petitioner shall report before the respondent Police as and when required for interrogation and the petitioners 2 to 4 shall report before the respondent Police every Saturday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];
