4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 15 bottles of Black Pearl Brandy (each containing 180 ml). He further submitted that 5 previous cases of similar nature are pending as against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that without prejudice to his defense, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.25,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or to any shelter home and he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. 7. In order to curb the illegal activities of selling illicit arrack, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner shall deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five thousand only) as a non refundable deposit to "The Medical Officer, Primary Health Centre, Edaiyakurichi, Ariyalur District - 621 719", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner is prepared to deposit Rs.25,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
