The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b) and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.20 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, intimidated him and also assaulted him. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the defact complainant and the 3rd petitioner are husband and wife and due to family dispute, a false complaint has been foisted against them. He would further submit that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners are relatives of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, intimidated him and also assaulted him. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against them. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thirupathur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing
