It is further revealed that A1 had colluded with A22 to prepare forged documents such as Chennai Port Trust Profile, Board of Resolution, Authorization letter bearing the specimen signatures and rubber seal of self inking stamp of Chennai Port Trust Officials, Employee ID Card, forging/copying/scanning the signature of the Chennai Port Trust Officials in the Board Resolution and the authorization letter and fabricated official letter format of Chennai

Port Trust by suing the name of "Port of Chennai" and its logo and thus the petitioner had directed one Shafiq Ahamed to prepare fake documents in the aspects of Board Resolution, Authorization letter, Employee ID card, fixed deposit receipts. These documents were used for purpose of creating fake account bearing No.6867825525 in the name of Chennai Port Trust, for impersonation of one Ganesh Natarajan (A4) as official of Chennai Port Trust and also the fake FDRs were delivered to Chennai Port Trust against the investment made by them.

5. It is the further submission that the petitioner has claimed that he has not been taken a good car by the prison authority and no medical facility was provided to him. This contention holds no merit as he has not produced any report/document in support of his claim. The prison authority has also not provided/submitted any material before the Competent Court reflecting that medical condition of the petitioner is unbearable and immediately need to cure the same. He would submit that the investigation has not been completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.
