Crl.O.P.No.29619 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 307 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.351 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant Anandaraman is that on 24.10.2022 at about 20.30 p.m., the de facto complainant along with his friends attended a birthday party. While so, there was a clash between two groups, in which, the petitioner abused the de facto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him, resulting him in sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent would submit that during the quarrel, the petitioner abused the de facto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him, resulting him in sustaining injuries. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
