Crl.O.P.No.29545 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 3(a) of the Railway Property (Unlawful Possession) Act, 1966 in Crime No.6 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that it was reported missing of 17 Nos. of Jayson Cocks valued Rs.1968/- from the Train No.06877 from Villupuram to Maiyladurai and the same was noticed on its arrival at Maiyladurai Railway Station on 04.11.2022. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, he would submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights and contentions is ready and willing to deposit some amount to the credit of Crime No.6 of 2022. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the accused had committed theft of 18 taps in the passenger train. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested in a case and on confession, the respondent came to know about the present case. Further, there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions and that the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit some amount to the credit of Cr.No.6 of 2022, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand Only) to the credit of crime No. 6 of 2022 within a period of two weeks from the date on which the order copy made ready, and on such deposit the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the
