4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that there was a love affair between the 2nd petitioner's daughter and defacto complainant's brother. Due to which, the petitioners have assaulted the defacto complainant and his brother, which caused injuries to them. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side), this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thirukazhukundram, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
