COMMON ORDER

These Criminal Original Petitions have been filed to direct the 2nd respondent to register the complaints of the petitioners dated 28.11.2022 and investigate the same.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the accused mentioned in the complaints namely Dheenadayalan and his wife Usha have taken money from the petitioners, promising them to get employment in Government jobs.

3. He further submitted that each individual petitioners had paid him an amount of Rs.5,00,000/- to Rs.17,00,000/- for getting Government jobs. Infact, they were also given fake appointment orders. In this regard, complainants were given to the 2nd respondent Police. However, 2nd respondent Police had returned the complaints, directing the petitioners to give the complaints to the Superintendent of Police directly.
