Crl.O.P.No.29980 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.140 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the 1st petitioner and the 2nd petitioner are the wife and mother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to a dispute between the husband and wife, there was a wordy quarrel between them. During which time, the 1st petitioner has assaulted the defacto complainant with knife resulting in him sustaining injuries and the 2nd petitioner has abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also intimidated him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and the injuries are simple in nature. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the 1st petitioner and the 2nd petitioner are the wife and mother-in-law of the defacto complainant. Due to family dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between them. During which time, the 1st petitioner has assaulted the defacto complainant with knife resulting in him sustaining injuries and the 2nd petitioner has abused the defacto complainant in filthy language. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kangeyam, on condition that each of the
