2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the petitioners along with others have planned to commit robbery. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners along with others have planned to commit robbery. He would further submit that there are two previous cases against the petitioners and they are history sheeters. Hence, he would vehemently oppose to grant
