Crl.O.P.No.30132 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.524 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, the petitioner had abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him with iron rod resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that petitioner is an innocent and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to family dispute, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with iron rod. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
