5. The learned Government Advocate would contend that the deceased has two wives. It is also stated that the mother of the deceased is alive and her name is not disclosed in the application.

6. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the 2nd marriage happened after the divorce of the first wife.

7. In the light of the above revaluation, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the Tahsildar, Thalavdi to consider the application of the petitioner, conduct a proper enquiry and thereafter issue a certificate within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the order. No costs.
