4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the the defacto complainants have paid a sum of Rs.19 lakhs to the account of the petitioner and the petitioner has gave a false promise that he will arrange for a government job and other facilities in the business by stating that his uncle is in key post in a political party. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.The learned counsel for the intervenors would submit that they have totally transferred a sum of Rs.19,00,000/- to the petitioner. They also filed typed set of papers containing the bank transactions to prove the same. Further, they have also enclosed one document, which is in Page No.7 of typed set of papers, which shows that one Geethapriya, wife of the petitioner has got job in the H.R. & C.E. Department.

6.Heard the learned counsel for the parties and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.
