Crl.O.P.No.30225 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.928 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant has obstructed the road for his family function. When the same was questioned by the petitioner and other accused, there was a wordy quarrel between them. During which, they have abused and assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged. He would further submit that the petitioner is a student and he is prepared to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the defacto complainant has obstructed the road for his family function. When the same was questioned by some of the accused, there was a wordy quarrel between them. During which, they have abused and assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also that the future and career of the student should not be spoiled and he should be reformed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate Court, Sriperumbudur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to
