The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Cr.No.508 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel raised between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to the previous enmity this petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden log, hence he sustained injuries and taken to hospital and thereafter discharged. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that he is no way connected with the alleged occurrence and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submits that due to previous enmity the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant and he got injured, thereafter the defacto complainant was discharged from hospital. He further submitted that there are two previous cases against this petitioner. Hence, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioner on his own volition, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of Crime No.508 of 2022, within a period of fifteen (15) days and on such deposit, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Madhavaram on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for
