The petitioner who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 379, of IPC in crime No. 189 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have illegally transported two wooden log of Thuringi Tree by using Tractor bearing registration NO. TN 83 C 8982, without any valid permit. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners, on their own volition, are ready and willing to contribute a some amount to the charitable Trust as imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner had illegally transported two wooden log of Thuringi Tree by using Tractor bearing registration NO. TN 83 C 8982, without any valid permit. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl Side), this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate II, Vaniyambadi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two
