head and body using aruval. At the time of offence, one of the accused Charles @ Saranraj standing at Pettai Road Junction, Thirunallar and he said to have given instructions to the other accused persons about the commission of murder of Devamani through video conference. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the investigation is completed and the final report in P.R.C.No.1 of 2022 was also filed before the concerned Magistrate. He would submit that he has not at all committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police and he is no way connected with the offence. He would further submit that the co-accused Nos.2 to 9, 11, 14 and 15 were released on bail by this court and the petitioner has been suffering incarceration from 24.10.2021. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that the petitioner is ranked as A1 and he is the prime accused and he had a cellphone conversation with the other accused and accordingly, the offence of murder was committed. He would submit that other co-accused were released on bail and if he is released on bail, he will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation and the investigation is not yet completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by both counsel and considering the fact that the petitioner is arrayed as A1 and he is the prime accused in committing the offence along with other accused, and also considering the gravity of offence committed by the petitioner and also considering the fact that there is possibility of tampering the witnesses and hampering the investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
