The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.564 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and others and the defacto complainant, due to which, they have attacked the defacto complainant, which resulting in him causing injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged. Only on the basis of the confession statement of another accused, he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is prepared to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that
