The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Section 4(1)(a) r/w 24 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act in Crime No.1054 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that petitioners were selling IMFL bottles without Government permission and were found in possession of 30 IMFL bottles each containing 180 ML. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged and on the basis of the confession statement of A1, they have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners, on their own volition, are ready and willing to contribute a sum of Rs.25,000/- to any Charitable Institute as may be directed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioners 1 and 2 are the owner and Supervisor of the bar. He would also submit that they have sold IMFL bottles without any permission and they were found in possession of 30 IMFL bottles each containing 180 ML. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side), this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambattur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further
