The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 341 and 307 of IPC in Crime No.275 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to enmity on account of girl eloping, the petitioner along with other accused have waylaid the defacto complainant and his uncle, abused them and have assaulted indiscriminately with iron rods and wooden logs, due to which, the defacto complainant's uncle sustained grievous injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that on account of previous enmity attacked indiscriminately with iron rod and wooden logs, due to which, the victim had sustained grievous injuries. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also submitted that the investigation was almost completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the investigation was almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
