Crl.O.P.No.30809 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.289 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with wooden log resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners who are relatives to the defacto complainant are innocent persons and due to civil dispute, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that it is a case and a case in counter. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. Due to civil dispute, they have abused and assaulted each other. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that it is a case and a case in counter, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ulundurpet, Kallakurichi on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum
