

Crl.O.P.No.30782 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 323, 506(i) IPC in Cr.No.517 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is alleged to have stopped the tanker lorry in the middle of the road. When it was questioned by the defacto complainant, there arose a wordy quarrel between them, in which the petitioner abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that he is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to which, a false complaint has been given against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner is alleged to have stopped the tanker lorry in the middle of the road. When it was questioned by the defacto complainant, there arose a wordy quarrel between them, in which the petitioner abused him in filthy language and also assaulted him. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Alandhur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the
