4.The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) would submit that the petitioner had conspired along with four other accused and cheated the defacto complainant by borrowing gold jewels in his name from his suppliers weighing 15547.884 grams. He would submit that there are totally seven accused in this case, among them, some of the accused have been secured and the other accused are still absconding. Therefore, if the petitioner is released on bail, the proceedings will be stalled. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the allegation level against the petitioner and that still other accused are yet to be secured, this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
