and received a sum of Rs.5,00,000/-. However, he neither secured a job nor returned the money. He would submit that the petitioner had cheated 30 victims on false promise of getting a job in Government to the tune of Rs.88,00,000/-. He would further submit that sofar 13 complaints have been received against the petitioner. Therefore, if he is enlarged on bail, he would tamper the evidence. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Mr.M.Naresh Babu, learned counsel appearing for the defacto complainant/Intervenor would submit that the petitioner had induced the defacto complainant and received a sum of Rs.5,00,000/- and cheated him. Sofar, 30 victims have been identified by the respondent, who had been cheated by the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is the main accused. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. On a perusal of the materials available on records, it reveals that it is a case of job racketing and this case requires a detailed investigation. Therefore, if he is released on bail, he would tamper the
