The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 436 of IPC in Cr.No.188 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other person alleged to have set fire to the house of the defacto complainant and caused damages to the cash of Rs.10,000/-, 4 grams gold jewels, school certificates and receipts and house hold articles. Altogether a total sum of Rs.2 lakhs damages were caused. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that he is no way connected with the alleged occurrence and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submits that the petitioner along with other person alleged to have set fire to the house of the defacto complainant and caused damages worth about Rs.2 lakhs. Hence, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioner on his own volition, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) to the credit of Crime No.188 of 2022, within a period of fifteen (15) days and on such deposit, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sirkazhi on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum
