The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 430 and 379 of IPC r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, in Crime No.14 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.It is the case of the prosecution that when the respondent police was on patrol, it was found that the petitioners along with other accused have illegally transported 7½ units of lake sand in the vehicles bearing Registration Nos.TN 87 7948, TN 87 7949, TN 87 C 4952 and TN 87 8110. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that some of the accused have been granted bail by the learned Principal Sessions Judge at Kancheepuram District at Chengalpattu. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners, on their own volition, is ready and willing to contribute a sum of Rs.15,000/- each to the credit of the Registered Advocates Clerks Association, Kancheepuram District, that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioners have illegally transported 7½ unit of lake sand. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side), this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the
