The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 352, 427, 379, 506(i) IPC (NP) in Cr.No.316 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that on 11.09.2022, the petitioners along with others demanded money from him and when the same was refused, the petitioners and others trespassed into the defacto complainant's house and caused damage to the articles and taken away cash of Rs.1,00,000/- and 5 ½ Sovereigns of gold. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that the defacto complainant and the accused are neighbours and there was a dispute between them, due to which a false complaint has been given against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

When the same was refused, the petitioners and others trespassed into the defacto complainant's house and caused damage to the articles and taken away cash of Rs.1,00,000/- and 5 ½ Sovereigns of gold. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
