Crl.O.P.No.30799 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.555 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with wooden log resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners who are relatives to the defacto complainant are innocent persons and due to civil dispute, a false complaint has been given against them. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. Due to civil dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with wooden log resulting in him sustaining injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Nannilam, Thiruvarur District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police on every Wednesday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of eight weeks.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];
