3. The case of the petitioners is that they are land looser.

Challenging the acquisition proceedings, the petitioners came up before this Court. For the purpose of setting up of National Aromatics Complex in Saidapet Taluk, the respondents acquired the lands including the petitioners property. The third respondent issued notification under G.O.Ms.No.264 Industries (MID-1) Department, Dated 16.07.1992. Subsequent to that, a declaration under Section 6 was published in Tamil Nadu Government Gazatte No.30C, Supplement Dated 29.07.1992, Part-II, Section 2 at Page No.11 to 14 and later an award was also made on 05.08.1984 in Award No.04/1994. Challenging the same, these writ petitions have been filed for re-convey the land.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that an award was passed and the compensation amount has not been paid to the petitioners and the possession has also not been taken from them. Thereafter, the entire land acquisition proceedings have been lapsed under Section 24(2) of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Re-settlement Act, 2013. The learned counsel further submitted that this Court may permit the petitioners to make appropriate application before the Government for providing alternative place or return the land, which was owned by the petitioners.

5. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing on behalf of the respondents has no objection for the contention raised by the respondents.

6. Heard, the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Counsel appearing for the respondents, and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and in view of the limited request made by the petitioners, this Court permits the petitioners to make a application/petition before the respondents claiming alternative land for them along with all the relevant documents within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the order. Upon receipt of such representation, the concerned respondents shall consider the
