The petitioners who apprehends arrest on the hands of respondent police for the offence alleged under Section 147,148,294(b),323,324,506(ii) of I.P.C in Crime No.329 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2.It is the case of the prosecution that due to previous enmity the petitioners waylaid the defacto complainant and also attacked him and thereby caused injuries to him and the petitioner was hospitalized as in-patient. Hence, the defacto complainant lodged this complaint before the respondent police.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and the defacto complainant has foisted a false case against this petitioner and there is no previous case against this petitioner. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned counsel for the intervenor would submit that the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant and caused severe injuries to him. Hence he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent states that due to previous enmity, the petitioner brutally attacked the defacto complainant and thereby caused injuries to him. Hence, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint before the respondent police and vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioner on his own volition, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of Crime No.329 of 2022, within a period of fifteen (15) days and on such deposit, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance,
