The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police punishable for the offences punishable under Sections 465, 468, 471, 420 and 109 of IPC, in Crime No.735 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that the accused have cheated the de-facto complainant to the tune of Rs.4,40,000/-, by fabricating the forged documents and sold the car, which was in hypothecation at private finance. Based on the complaint given by the de-facto complainant, the case in Crime No.735 of 2022 was registered for the offences punishable under Sections 465, 468, 471, 420 and 109 of IPC. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she was falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and she is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner along with the other accused have cheated the de-facto complainant by fabricating the forged documents and concealing the fact that the car was in hypothecation at private finance, sold the car to the de-facto complainant. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel that the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
