The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 395, 294(b) and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.367 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were celebrating the birthday of one of their friends by cutting a 'Aruval shaped Cake'' near the bus stand and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner threatened him with knife point. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate would submit that there are two previous cases, similar in nature, pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
