

Crl.O.P.No.31269 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 447, 395 and 397 IPC in Cr.No.467 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. There are totally nine accused in this case, in which the petitioner is arrayed as A9. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners along with other accused had illegally stolen the steel materials from the closed companies. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that he is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that A3 and A4 have been released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that petitioner along with other accused had illegally stolen 60 tonnes of scrap materials from the closed companies. He would submit that some of the accused have been detained under Goondas.

Further, there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and that the stolen properties have been recovered. He would further submit that the investigation has been completed. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the stolen properties have been recovered and that the investigation has been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned District Munsif Cum Judicial Magistrate, Parangipettai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
