The petitioners, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 147,148,324,307 of IPC in Cr.No.274 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the petitioner along with other accused have celebrated birthday to one of their friend and thereby caused disturbance to the general public and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners attacked him and caused grievous injury to the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that they are no way connected with the alleged occurrence and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would submits that there was a case in counter. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submits that the petitioners along with other accused were celebrating birthday party to one of their friend and thereby caused disturbance to the general public and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant they attacked him severely. Hence, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioners on his own volition, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of Crime No.274 of 2022, within a period of fifteen (15) days and on such deposit, the petitioners is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on
