Crl.O.P.No.31601 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 307 of IPC in Crime No.287 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 12.12.2022, the petitioner has left his mobile phone in the defacto complainant's hotel. While enquiring about the same, there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. During which, the petitioner had attacked him sustaining grievous injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged. The learned counsel, on instructions, would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit the amount of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) to the credit of the crime number. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner has left his mobile phone in the defacto complainant's hotel. When the petitioner enquired about the same, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, during which, the petitioner had attacked him sustaining grievous injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I. Tirupattur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
