The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 of IPC, in Crime No.297 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that he is doing Blue Metals Cement Concrete Contract Works and he used to park his concrete metals mixing machines at rental space. On 10.12.2022, one of the machines found missing, thereby, he lodged the present complaint. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent raised his objection stating that the accused have stolen one of the concrete metals mixing machines belongs to the de-facto complainant, which was parked at the rental space. He also submitted that based on the complaint given by the de-facto complainant, a case in Crime No.297 of 2022 was registered for the offence under Section 379 of IPC and also stated that the major part of the investigation is over and the machine was recovered from the accused. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and also taking note of the fact that the major part of the investigation is over, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the
