Crl.O.P.No.31772 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 323, 427, 354, 506(ii) and 307 of IPC in Crime No.573 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 15.12.2022, there was a wordy quarrel between two ITI students while travelling in bus. At that time, one of the student reaching village, both made quarrel in stopping and the villagers assembled to set free them. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringed conditions as imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that there was a wordy quarrel between two ITI students while travelling in bus. At that time, one of the student reaching village, both made quarrel in stopping and the villagers assembled to set free them. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
