Crl.O.P.No.31914 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 370 (2) of IPC r/w 3(1), 3(2)(a), 4(1), 5(1)(a) of Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, in Crime No.422 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused, after knowing the background of the victims, forced and brainwashed them to involve in prostitution. The respondent police rescued the victims and registered a case for the offences punishable under Sections 370 (2) of IPC r/w 3(1), 3(2)(a), 4(1), 5(1)(a) of Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent raised his objection stating that the petitioner along with the other accused, by knowing the poor financial background of the victims, forced and brainwashed them to involve in prostitution. He also submitted that the victims were rescued and the case in Crime No.422 of 2022 was registered for the offence under Sections 370 (2) of IPC r/w 3(1), 3(2)(a), 4(1), 5(1)(a) of Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act against the accused. He also stated that this is the second bail application of the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
