Crl.O.P.No.32151 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 & 430 IPC, in Crime No.282 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were indulged in illegal transportation of 1 unit of river sand by using tractor bearing registration No.TN-20-CT-8902 without any valid permit.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is the owner of the vehicle. He further submitted that the petitioner's Driver is the person who has taken the sand from river sand and the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner by stating that the petitioner along with other accused were indulged in illegal transportation of 1 unit of river sand by using tractor without any valid permit.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice to his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the
