Crl.O.P.No.32216 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section 379 IPC, in Crime No.171 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the de-facto complainant and his subordinates were in patrol duty for prohibition of sand and mines theft, they found that the petitioners were indulged in illegal transportation of boundary stones without having valid bill and permit, by using Tata Lorry bearing registration No.TN-68-F-2217.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners without prejudice to their rights, on their own volition, are ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners by stating that the petitioners, who are the owner and driver of the lorry, were indulged in illegal transportation of boundary stones without having valid bill and permit, by using Tata Lorry bearing registration No.TN-68-F-2217. Hence he opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also considering the fact that the petitioners without prejudice to their rights, on their own volition, are ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
