Crl.O.P.No.32254 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 353, 332, 323 & 506(i) IPC, in Crime No.187 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Based on the complaint given by the de-facto complainant that the petitioner along with the other accused prevented the de-facto complainant and other officials from discharging their official duty and abused them in a filthy language, a case in Crime No.187 of 2022 was registered for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 353, 332, 323 & 506(i) IPC. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He also stated that the similarly placed co-accused in this case have been granted anticipatory bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner along with the other accused abused the de-facto complainant and other officials in an abusive language and prevented them from discharging their official duty. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and also considering the fact that the co-accused have been granted anticipatory bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
