The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 379 of IPC r/w 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.294 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were found cutting Black stone in Navakkollai village S.No.388/3 3.62 cents patta land without any permission from the Government and further they escaped from the scene of occurrence. Hence, the complaint was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners, on their own volition, they are ready and willing to contribute a some amount to any charitable trust as imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
