No.13 thereat, learned counsel submits that the entire matter pertains to V pay commission and its recommendation. It is also submitted that similarly paid workmen had made claim that they were entitled to arrears as per V pay commission and there were proceedings in this Court but the applicants were not aware of the same as the applicants were not in touch with the Trade Union concerned.

5. Considering the nature of the matter and facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the view that COD prayers deserve to be acceded to.

6. All captioned seven applications ordered as prayed for. Delays condoned. There shall be no order as to cost.
